Reconciliation: The Archbishop of Canterbury’s Lent Book

Dr Muthuraj Swamy’s, Director of the CCCW new book issues a vibrant call to the church to support and strengthen relationships amongst church members; to cross borders to build connections with different denominations, and to maintain open attitudes towards our neighbours from other religions and ideologies.

‘A thoroughly biblical guide to reconciliation – its passions and problems, its complexity and utter cruciality. Dr Swamy offers new angles on old stories, prophetic messages, and a gospel wisdom on becoming people of peace.’

Cambridge Students and Christianity Worldwide: Insights from the 1960s

CCCW Research Associate Dr Ian Randall’s new book is the 2019 Cambridge Centre for Christianity Worldwide Occasional Paper.

‘[In this book] Ian Randall traces the impact on global mission made by some of those whose faith and zeal were shaped and motivated through the Cambridge Inter-Collegiate Christian Union in the 1960s. Those of us then in CICCU could scarcely have realised at the time what a remarkable decade that would turn out to be.’
