

Intercultural Encounter Scheme – Application Form 2020

Deadlines:

Applications must be received no later than Thursday 23 April 2020.

References must reach the Centre by the same deadline at which you are applying,

Application forms and References may be posted to the Cambridge Centre for Christianity Worldwide, or emailed to encounter@cccw.cam.ac.uk.

References:

You should download and send a copy of the Letter to Referees and the conditions of the bursary to the two referees whom you have named on your application form.

You should let them know the details of your proposed visit and ask them to send their letter of reference by post or email before the deadline.

The referees should be a minister of your church, a chaplain or tutor of your college, an employer, or another person who has known you for a number of years. They should not be fellow students, relatives or colleagues.

If references have not been received by the due date, the application will not be considered.

Please Note:

Only one bursary per applicant will be awarded by the panel of Trustees.

Please ensure you read the eligibility criteria on the website and in completing the form demonstrate how you fit these criteria (in particular, the length of placement, suitable supervision, and the level of cultural immersion).

You can refer to our website (<https://www.cccw.cam.ac.uk/encounter/>) for key dates, tips for the long-answer format questions 4-9, and useful resources for planning your placement.

The amount of the bursary will in no case exceed £1000 and applicants must state how the balance is to be made up. In general, it is expected that no more than two thirds of the total cost of the placement are covered by the bursary.

Please answer in as much detail as possible and use as much space as you need.

10. Declarations

I am applying for a bursary under the CCCW Intercultural Encounter Scheme and I confirm that the information given on this form is correct. If this application is successful, I agree to abide by the conditions of the scheme.

I understand that the Henry Martyn Trust (operating under the name 'Cambridge Centre for Christianity Worldwide') does not provide insurance in respect of any Encounter placement or associated travel, and cannot take responsibility for any risks that arise. I understand that I am responsible for arranging suitable insurance cover.

After my placement, I undertake to submit a written report to the trustees of the Henry Martyn Trust and agree that extracts from the report can be used by CCCW for its general purposes. This is subject to any specific restrictions for valid reasons of confidentiality that I shall identify to the CCCW Encounter Coordinator when I submit my report.

I understand that my personal information will be stored for the purposes of the Encounter Scheme in accordance with the International Encounter Scheme Privacy Policy.
